Last week November, First and Third week of December, 2019 & 2020

This tour has quickly become Ohio Travel Treasures most popular Christmas Tour

Highlights of Your Tour

Vince Gill and Amy Grant Christmas at the Ryman

One of the most sought after holiday shows. Reserved prime seating tickets. In their program, the Grammy-winning husband-and-wife team will present cherished standards and as well as newer seasonal fare.

"Christmas audiences are special," explains Grant. "They tend to involve the whole family, and their emotions are a wonderful mix of anticipation and reverence. It's a thrilling experience for both of us." "These holiday tours have become our favorites," Gill agrees.

Light dinner before the show.

Gaylord Opryland Resort

There is no better place to be this holiday season than Nashville's iconic Gaylord Opryland Resort with acres of larger-than-life decorations, shopping, dining and holiday spirit. The name of the game at Gaylord Opryland is "comfort", especially for your feet! It's a huge hotel and you will do a lot of walking so wear comfortable shoes!

Breakfast each morning is included. Don't miss the following during your stay at the resort:

Outdoor Nativity, features special lighting effects and an audio rendition of the biblical story of the birth of Christ. Location:

Nine acres of indoor gardens lavishly decorated for the holidays!

14-story soaring crystal-like dome of the Delta!

Water Fountain Show! 3 waterfalls!

141 ft. Southern Lights Christmas Tree!

SPECIAL Entertainment is INCLUDED with your meal at Fontanel

Steven Whitson is a Nashville Recording Artist and Songwriter born and raised in the small town of Trimble in West Tennessee. In 2012, Steven had a producer from LA on one of his "TURS." This meeting resulted in Steven making his television debut on the "Marie Osmond Show," on the Hallmark Channel. Steven has also had the honor to watch and learn from his mentor, "Little Miss Dynamite," Brenda Lee.
